PROFILE

I am a Mexican Filmmaker living in France and based in Paris for the past three years. I've worked mostly as a First Assistant Director for short films to international directors. As a recent graduate of a Masters in Filmmaking with a major in Directing I am looking forward to keep building my career in the directing department and to help French and international artists bring their artistic vision to life.

SKILLS

- Management of cast and crew in small/medium productions.
- Organizing shooting schedules and thorough daily call sheets (under pressure or changing call times).
- Managing safety on-set and insuring a safe work place is priority.
- Leading people to come together to achieve the goal of production/director.
- Quick and efficient problem resolution.
- Directing actors for film.
- Creative writing.
- Proficient in three languages: English, French and Spanish.
